RE: Iowa Beef Heifer Award

The Iowa Beef Heifer Award program is being coordinated by the Iowa Cattlemen's Association and sponsored by the Iowa State Fair and Beef Breed Associations. Kent Feeds, Inc. sponsors the show halters for the runners-up. Any 4-H, FFA, or Junior Beef Breed Association member, who will exhibit a beef animal at the Iowa State Fair is eligible to compete for this award.

Objectives

The Iowa Beef Heifer Award is a unique contest honoring outstanding youth and future- leaders of the beef industry. In addition, the contest was created to increase interest and participation in the beef breeding heifer project. It encourages a broader outlook of the beef industry through a personal interview with each finalist.

Eligibility

1. All applicants must complete the Iowa Beef Heifer Award application and submit it to Mary Greiman, Iowa Cattlemen's Association, 2055 Ironwood Ct, Ames, Iowa 50014, no later than July 1.
2. Applicant must exhibit a beef project at the Iowa State Fair in the 4-H, FFA or Open Class Division. This entry must be owned by the applicant.
3. Applicants selected as finalists must be present for personal interviews (Monday of the fair) and during the announcement of winners at the Iowa State Fair (Tuesday of the fair). Finalists will be notified of date and time of their interview.
4. Past first place winners of the Iowa Beef Heifer Award are not eligible.

SELECTION PROCEDURE:

1. Application forms will be available at all County Extension Offices, from Vo-Ag High School Agricultural Instructors and Beef Breed Association Officers.
